The Tree Ring Project - Krokstadora and Zagreb

TORSDAG 19. JANUAR 2012

Krokstadora Oppvekstsenter - field work desember

As you can see in the pictures it was snowing when we did our fieldwork in desember 2011. It was cold, but the tree ring sampels we took looked fine. We haven't analyzed our samples yet, but we will soon do so.

February 8th, 2011. fourth videoconference between students we presented some folk customs and croatian pop and rock music...

Our music scene is crowded with unusual artists

A circular drawing of a tree trunk cross-section. The outermost ring is a thick brown border. Inside, several concentric rings are drawn in light brown and grey. In the center, there is a scene of a boat on water. The boat has a red roof and a white hull with a red and white checkered pattern. The water is blue. Several figures are scattered around the central scene, each within a different ring. The figures are drawn in various colors: blue, orange, green, and pink. They appear to be standing or walking. The overall style is simple and illustrative.

More of our teachers joined to Fellowship of the Ring (Tree Ring project) : Jasna Smojver, Ankica Dekanić, Jadranka Janković, Morana Bartolić (like elves joined too help humans, hobbits and dwarfs, in our case Norwegian and our students, us mentors and principals)
